

Cantique de Noël

(O Holy Night)

Placide Cappeau (bf. 1893), trans. Jessica Moyer (2010)

Adolphe Adam (1847),
arr. Kris Shaffer (2010)

C F

1. Mid-night has struck_ at last, that sol - emn
2. No wall can stand_ be - fore our great Re-

8 C G⁷ C

ho - ur when God as Man once des-cend-ed to earth, to sa - tis - fy_ his deem - er. The earth is free, God has o-pened the skies. Now through His eyes,_ the

16 F C C⁷ Em B⁷ Em

Fa-ther's right-eous an - ger and wash us clean, who were sin-stained from birth. The slave be - comes a broth - er: Our chains are gone, love a - lone now u - nites. Oh, whole world trem-bles with an - ti - ci - pa - tion Up - on this night, when we are freed from fear.

23 G⁷ C G⁷ C

who can tell our grate - ful ad - or - a - tion? Born for us all, He suf-fered and He died.

©2010 Kris Shaffer & Jessica Moyer.

This song is free for use in congregational worship services and may be freely copied for that purpose.

All other rights reserved. <http://worship.shaffermusic.com>

31 Am Em Dm A F C G⁷

Fall on your knees! A - wait your God's sal - va - tion. No - ël, no -
Stand, lift your voice! Pro - claim his great sal - va - tion! No - ël, no -

41 C F C G⁷ C G C F

ël, our Sav - ior, Christ is here! No - ël, no - ël, our ël, sing to the Lord on high. No - ël, no - ël, sing

51 C G⁷ C F C G⁷ C

Sav - ior, Christ is here! to the Lord on high. ior, Christ is here!
the Lord on high. the Lord on high.

62 G C F C G⁷ C

No - ël, no - ël, our Sav - ior, Christ is here!
No - ël, no - ël, sing to the Lord on high.

rall.